GEN. SCHOFIELD ACCUSED.

Making of Army Appointments. WASHINGTON, Oct. 13 .- There is grumbling in army circles over alleged acts of nepotism on the part of Major-Gen. Schofield, commander of all the regulars. Gen. Schofield, by a recent order, relieved his son-in-law, Lieut. Avery D. Andrews, from the position of aide-de-camp on his staff and gave the Lieutenant a year's leave of absence.

Then he appointed his own son, Second Lieut.
R. McA. Schofield, to the vacant place on his inventor and mechanic.
The prisoner was held in $1,000 ball for trial.

This appointment adds 42.000 a year to young schoneld's income, but certainly does not add to the arduousness of his duties.
A short time ago Gen. Schodeld put his brother-in-law, Col. Bartlett, on pleasant duty at Madison Barracks, New York, and it is charged that be detached the officers of an indian fighting troop to make room for iriends, whom he wished to bring to Fort Myer, near Washington.
